

Graeme joined OCADFA in the fall of 2020 to serve as the Association's first Executive Director. Graeme's a labour relations expert with a passionate commitment to defending high quality post-secondary education & scholarship. Prior to joining OCADFA Graeme worked as a Labour Relations Officer with the Health Sciences Association of Saskatchewan (HSAS), a National Representative with the Canadian Union of Public Employees (CUPE), and served as the Secretary-Treasurer and Chair/President of CUPE 3903 at York University. Graeme brings to OCADFA a fierce dedication to providing effective representation, negotiation, and advocacy for post-secondary faculty and public sector workers.