

Associate Professor JJ Lee is an artist-educator whose mixed media drawings and paintings look at the hyphenated identity. Lee has been active in the curricular development and the governance of OCAD University in various capacities such as Faculty of Art's Chair of First Year Experience to Senate Executive Committee member. This is Lee's first time on OCADFA board and is looking forward in working with this team to improve conditions at OCADU.