

Natalie Majaba Waldburger is an Associate Professor and Interim Chair of Sculpture/Installation and Life Studies in the Faculty of Art. Her art-based research practice seeks interdisciplinary forms and invites collaborative engagement in ongoing inquiries that draw on her experiences as an artist, educator, administrator, and mother. She continually explores the rich collective spaces of experience and ideas that cross disciplines and bring people together to redefine exhibition spaces collectively and in the teaching and learning environment.